

EXHIBITING ARTIST

37907 Second Avenue, Squamish, BC
<https://squamishlibrary.ca/foyer-gallery/>

January 21st – March 16th

Opening Reception

Saturday,

January 25th, 2 – 3pm

refreshments ~ treats ~ live demo

All Welcome!

SUZANNE BILODEAU

Winter Symphony

acrylic paintings

SUZANNE BILODEAU, Winter Symphony, acrylic paintings

Artist Bio

Suzanne was born in Quebec. She grew up by the banks of the St-Lawrence River in Matane. Art has been her true love since her childhood. She studied visual art to become an art teacher.

In Montreal, Suzanne completed her bachelor degree in Art Education. Back home in Bas St-Laurent, she taught high school and University classes at the Universite du Quebec a Rimouski as well as perfecting herself while doing a Master Degree in Art Education. She painted numerous of the Gaspé peninsula.

Suzanne loves to paint what moves her. She gets her inspiration while being in the outdoors kayaking in Howe Sounds, hiking or skiing in Whistler. She expresses the world through her own experiences. Her palette is loaded with bright colours searching to show her audiences the beauty of nature.

Q&A with SUZANNE BILODEAU

Q: Describe this exhibit? What was your creative stimulation for this particular series?

A: This exhibit is about sharing the winter wonderland of Whistler.

Q: How have you developed your career? Are you a fulltime artist?

A: I was an Art teacher and am now retired so I have time to paint.

Q: What's your background? How long have you been doing art?

A: I ski and have loved drawing since I was a child.

Q: What is most important to you in your art?

A: Expressing the beauty of nature.

Q: How did you learn about the methods you use to make your work?

A: I studied art at University in Montreal and Vancouver

Q: What routines have you developed in your practice? How do they help or hinder your creativity?

A: In this series, the mountains are my true inspiration.

For more information visit: @bilodeausuzanne on Instagram

